

KLOVE is our provider for Christian music, information, and entertainment in my living area.

KLOVE provides my family with the alternative to the world's daily assault on our life with "bad news" or "trash" like some radio/tv personalities offer on the air. KLOVE is a nice reprieve from the typical station on the airwaves. KLOVE also provides us w/ uplifting information in a manner that we don't usually hear on the radio. It's refreshing to know KLOVE can be tuned into or put on the internet and listened too and not worried about if it's going to be there or not.
